New Slate of Board Officers

Middletown- Donald Green of Middletown has been elected as the President of the Board of Directors for Crystal Run Village, Inc. a non-profit provider of community-based programs for adults and children with intellectual and psychological disabilities. The board's constituted slate of officers includes Susan Kennedy of Walden, as vice president, Myrna Kurtz of Sayville, as secretary and Lewis Siegel of Manhattan as treasurer.

Green is the Business Solutions Coordinator for Continuing and Professional Education at Orange County Community College. The Business Solutions Department of the college provides customized training and professional development programs for businesses, health care institutions and public sector organizations.

Green is the former and 3rd generation CEO of Green's Department Store. His reputation as an innovator in the retail industry resulted in his appointment to the National Retail Federation Board of Directors. He is an accomplished corporate trainer and previously provided services as a trainer/facilitator to a diverse array of companies nationally and internationally, including Neiman-Marcus and Hyatt Hotels and Resorts.

"I am extremely honored to serve on the board and I consider being chosen a valued personal accomplishment," Green said. "With the collective capacity of the business and community leaders and parents who are board members and, the talents of the Crystal Run Village executive team, people with intellectual disabilities and mental illness will be well served by our efforts."

Crystal Run Village, Inc. has been creating and providing services for the inclusion, independence, productivity and enrichment of the lives of people with disabilities for 50 years. With an operating budget of approximately $37-million and 840 staff people, the agency provides support in the form of housing, programs for learning and self expression, opportunities for employment, community inclusion and recreation - all for the purpose of an individual's greater independence and contribution as a citizen. The human services agency has been headquartered in Middletown since 1959.
